ABOUT...

- Paris was born and raised in Lancaster, a small town just outside Los Angeles. She comes from a large family, as she spent much of her youth surrounded by her grandparents, his sister, her cousins and various extended family. Paris was primarily raised by a single mom until she was 11-years-old. Growing up, her family didn't have much money, but Paris' mom always did her best to put food on the table. Paris admits she was raised around several strong, independent women who have helped shape her into the woman she is today.
- She started singing as early as she began talking, despite none of her family members being musically inclined. Paris became obsessed with Hannah Montana at 7-years-old and it was around this time she first realized she wanted to be a professional singer one day. She received her first piano from her grandmother that she purchased at a garage sale. Paris immediately taught herself to play and began writing her own songs and lyrics.
- As a teenager, Paris began posting singing videos and original music on social media with the intention of being discovered. Last year, she had the chance to join a girl group, but the opportunity was short-lived... and she was soon back to pursuing a solo career. Paris considers her music to be a blend pop, soul and R&B. She loves to express everything she feels in her lyrics and enjoys connecting with her listeners on another level.
- In 2019, Paris joined TikTok and quickly started building a following after several videos went viral. Nowadays, she has more than 2 million followers. Despite her success through the platform, Paris admits most people only know her because of TikTok. This has ultimately been a major hurdle for her, as she wants to be known for more than just her social media posts. Nonetheless, Paris is doing everything in her power to become the next great pop superstar... and she'll stop at nothing to achieve her goals.
